Featuring the SmartMobile Wireless Android A920 Terminal…

The PAX A920 is the world's most elegantly designed, compact, and secure wireless terminal available powered by the Android operating system.

The A920 comes with a large high definition tablet color display and a thermal printer that is neatly hidden to maximize screen usage for merchant transaction efficiency.

A wide range of connectivity options are supported, as well as built-in NFC contactless payment capability. You can also support electronic signature capture and real-time terminal-centric reporting capabilities.

This terminal comes coupled with Ryze's revolutionary processing solutions and more.
